

Peter Lloyd was very much part of the journey we embarked upon together in the months leading up to our wedding day. By gently guiding us through the questions we needed to ask of ourselves and of each other, we reached a deeper understanding of our love and commitment.

Our wedding ceremony was moving in its purity and simplicity and we have emerged from our experience spiritually changed and feeling that we really did get married. We have Peter to thank for making our union meaningful, sincere and very personal.

Mr & Mrs Clarke